

Glenn E. Becker

Glenn E. Becker is Managing Director overseeing institutional client service and business development at Birch Run Investments, where he has served since August 2019. Before joining Birch Run, he served for 12 years as President of The Swarthmore Group, and has held several other senior leadership roles in the investment management industry.

Mr. Becker served as Partner and Director of Client Service for Miller Anderson & Sherrerd. Following the acquisition of Miller Anderson & Sherrerd by Morgan Stanley, he held the role of Managing Director and Director of Client Services for Morgan Stanley Investment Management. Prior to joining Miller Anderson & Sherrerd, Mr. Becker served as Portfolio Manager and Director of Marketing and Client Services at Provident Capital Management.

Mr. Becker is presently a member of the Board of the Pennsylvania State Employees' Retirement System (SERS) where he serves as Chairman of the Investment Committee. He is also a former Trustee and Chairman of the Investment Committee of Germantown Academy. Mr. Becker holds a B.S. in Business Administration and an MBA from Drexel University.