

Gregory K. Jordan

Gregory Jordan is an annuitant member of the SERS Board, having retired in 2017 after more than 32 years of Commonwealth service. His extensive record includes almost 10 years of service as Executive Director of the Senate Majority Appropriations Committee, where he was primarily responsible for the management of the appropriation process and supervision of Appropriations Committee staff.

Before this, he was Assistant Executive Director of the Senate Majority Appropriations Committee from 1995 to 2008, and earlier served as a research analyst for the committee from 1989 to 1995.

Prior to this, he served as legislative liaison for the Department of General Services for three years. He began his career with the Commonwealth as a management intern in the Governor's Office of Administration in 1985.

Jordan earned a Master of Business Administration degree from Clarion University of Pennsylvania, and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Clarion State College.

Jordan has extensive community and professional service in addition to his service on the SERS Board. He has served as an appointee of the Senate President Pro Tempore to the Legislative Audit and Advisory Commission since 2017. He was a Senate Republican designee to the Public School Employees Retirement System (PSERS) Board from 2005-2006. He also served as Chairman of the State Board of Funeral Directors from 1998 to 2000, and was a public member of the board from 1995 to 1998.